

I listen to K-LOVE all the time. I want to hear Christian music and I want my children to listen to Christian music. Television programming is full of sex, violence and crude language and I like the fact that I and my family have an alternative. K-LOVE radio is that alternative. It gives us good, positive music and programs. We need good Christian radio stations. We do not need more trash. This community is entitled to decent Christian radio programs.